VOLUME EIGHT. NUMBER 12

AKRON, OHIO, THURSDAY EVENING, MAY 4, 1899.

PRICE ONE CENT

PERJURY.

Sensational Charge

Alleged to Have Been Made to Grand Jury.

Echo of the Recent Saloon Agitation.

Board of Education Funds Were Examined.

Another Will of John B. Woods—Court News.

A sensation is likely to develop before the present grand jury has finished its session.

An attorney, who has been identified with the anti-saloon movement in this city, held a brief conference with Prosecutor Wamamaker, Tuesday, for the purpose of calling that official's attention to certain testimony given at a recent hearing in this city, by one of the witnesses for the defense.

The lawyer says that he has good grounds for believing that a large part of it was untrue. If this can be proven, he urged that an indictment for perjury be returned against the alleged offender. The statutes make this offense a very serious one. The case has not yet been taken up by the grand jury.

Attorney involved.
The grand jury considered a case, called to their attention by Green township parties, Thursday. It concerns an Akron lawyer and a farm hand. Possession of the rustic's wages was obtained, it was alleged, in an unlawful manner.

Treasury Examined.
J. S. Benner and H. J. Blackburn made an examination of the funds in the hands of L. C. Miles, treasurer of the Board of Education. A balance of $56,279.73 was found.

Another Will.
The plaintiffs in the Woods will case attempted to introduce testimony Thursday for the purpose of proving the existence of another will.
The defense objected and the law bearing on the question was discussed at length.

Divorce Case.
Mary C. Baughman and Herman L. Baughman were married July 2, 1884. They have one child. She alleges he has threatened to blow out her brains and that he is guilty of extreme cruelty and gross neglect.
He was enjoined from harming her.
She asks for a divorce, alimony and custody of the child.

Marriage Licenses.

Class of the A. H. S.

The June graduating class of the Akron High school consists of 25 pupils.

This is much smaller than the average. The course of study has been extended and this accounts for the falling off in the number of graduates. Those who will receive diplo-

Miss Lula Bauer, Latin; John Beck,

POLITICS

Should Be Kept Out Where the City's Interests Are Concerned.

EDITOR DEMOCRAT:
I am, a Republican for all the name implies. I notice that there is a controversy over the building permit ordinance. It matters little to me who gets the fee, but I think to abolish that ordinance would prove disastrous to the tax duplicate of the City of Akron. As assessor of the Second ward I have already found three buildings erected last year without permits and as I am not half over the wall I expect to find several more. You will, therefore, see the necessity of not abolishing the ordinance, but enforcing it more rigidly for the benefit of the city, regardless of politics. When I get through I will make a report to the City Clerk of buildings erected without permits.

STEWART MILLER,
Assessor of Second ward.

BANDA ROSSA

Captivated a Large Audience—A Splendid Organization.

The Banda Rossa captivated the large audience at the Grand opera house last night.

Nothing better in the way of band music has ever been heard in the city of Akron.

Yet, notwithstanding the international reputation of this famous Italian band, and its record in this country, there remained some vacant seats. The boxes appeared more melancholy than is usual on such occasions, and many of the melodious notes were lost in the recesses of these yawning apertures.

The music was severely classical, and in many places completely transcended the appreciation of the audience.

As to the work of the band itself, it revealed that precision of movement and mastery of intonation, which can only come by long and assiduous work and under the direction of a master hand.

Candidates Chosen.

The Prohibition Executive Committee has chosen Rev. W. E. Fitch, pastor of the North Hill M. E. church, as Prohibition candidate for Representative from Summit county.

Three hundred Prohibitionists must sign a petition to have their ticket placed on the ballot. Rev. W.
F. Crispin lost a petition containing names of 54 signers. He will be obliged to the finder if it is returned to him.

Miss Mae Coughlin of Washington st. pleasantly entertained a number of her friends Wednesday evening in honor of Miss Maggie Murphy, who left this morning for Canton, where she will reside.

FRANCHISE

In Cuyahoga Falls.

Akron People's Telephone
Co. Will Get It.

Ordinance Passed the First Reading.

The Plat For the Conduits Has Been Prepared.

Independant Company at Piqua a Good Thing.

The Akron People's Telephone Co. will be granted a franchise to operate in Cuyahoga Falls, unless present predictions fail.

Last night the Falls council passed on its first reading the ordinance granting the Akron company a franchise. Next Wednesday evening it will receive its second and third readings.

Mr. Nutt said Thursday that the system would be ready for operation by January, 1900. He also said that the People's company would give free service to the users of the Central Union telephones until their contracts expired, if they made a contract to extend a year with the home company.

The plat for conduits was finished today. It will be submitted to the City Commissioners not later than Saturday.

"By the way," said Mr. Nutt, "since the Central Union is trying to discourage all independent telephone companies, let me tell you about the situation at Piqua, Ohio, where the Central Union is operating. A business man went before the Council and got a franchise in less than two hours. This man wrote to bureaus throughout the country and received 150 answers in reply. Ninety-five per cent said it was a good investment and a number wanted to take stock in the company he was about to organize."

WET OR DRY?

Hard Proposition For the Falls Council to Decide.

A red hot meeting of the council at the Falls was held Wednesday night.

At a previous meeting three councilmen voted to have the town wet and three opposed it. Wednesday four voted to give the citizens a chance to vote on the local option law. Two opposed this.

The city solicitor says five votes are required to carry the question.

To Whom It May Concern:

I have this day received the full payment of the insurance carried in THE PATHFINDER by my late husband. As the death proofs were not received at the Supreme office until yesterday, and payment is made within twenty-four hours, the promptness of THE PATH-FINDER surely cannot be excelled.
I am under lasting obligations to the members of Magnet lodge for furnishing a nurse and many other kind acts shown me during the sickness and death of my husband.
I also most heartily thank the officers of THE PATHFINDER, both in my behalf and that of my child, for furnishing me so promptly with the insurance money which I so much need at this time.

I hope the order will continue to grow rapidly.

Yours sincerely,
MRS. MARY MOORE.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE

Taken Without Notification Resulted In a Heavy Fine.

Daniel Myers, of Barberton, who enlisted in Akron March 10, and was assigned to the Thirtieth Infantry at Fort Sigua, says he was dis-honorably discharged for taking a two weeks' leave of absence without notification. He says that about April 10 he left without notification but remained away only five days.
When he returned he was fined $15.
Soon afterward he was discharged for disability.

LACK OF RECRUITS

Occasioned By a Demand For Farm Hands.

Captain Tillson swore in three men at the recruiting office Thursday morning.

In speaking of the decrease of the number of applicants, he said that it was due in a large measure to the unusual demand for farm hands at this particular time of the year. The majority of applicants were either residents of the rural districts or persons engaged in agricultural pursuits.

The whereabouts of Sargt. Beebe, is still a mystery, according to Capt.
Tillson. Nothing has been heard from him since his desertion, except the letter which he wrote to his friend, Dr. Hamlin of this city.

Those of our readers who have

ASTONISHED

The Eastern Sports.

Draw Was a Virtual Victory For Ruhlin.

New York Papers Give Him Due Credit.

Buchtel's Base Ball Team Badly Beaten.

Allegheny College Players Had a Walk Away.

The New York papers, in commenting on the Ruhlin and Maher fight, give the Akron heavyweight credit for a much better showing than the press dispatches sent out from that city. Ruhlin should have been given the decision. He was the stronger at the finish and demonstrated his superiority all the way through.

"The result was a virtual victory for Ruhlin and somewhat of a setback for Maher, as the latter had been classed above the German pugilist, says the Sun. In point of science it was about a stand-off. Ruhlin's strength and endurance, however, offset Maher's heavy hitting. But the Ohioan had not the power to deliver blows that could produce a peaceful sleep. Ruhlin had fifteen pounds the better of it in weight and possessed an advantage in height and reach. He was also more skillfully handled than his opponent."

The Journal sizes up the result as follows:
"A huge surprise party was sprung at the Lenox Athletic club Tuesday night. The betting said that Maher would win. A few thought Ruhlin would win if it went over ten rounds; and nobody had an idea it would go the limit. But it went, and it is likely can be put down as the fastest twenty-round heavyweight fight of history. It was a terrific affair all the way. Maher's eyes began to close in the fourth round and just let in light at the close. He was punished worse than any man who has ever left the Lenox ring, and all doubt as to his gameness was settled forever. There never lived a gamer man than Peter Maher. He never faltered in spite of the grueling and fought a great fight."

Buchtel's Second Attempt.

Buchtel team made its second attempt to play the great national game on the College athletic field Wednesday afternoon.

A crowd of 25 young ladies and half as many men witnessed the unequal contest. The visitors, representing Allegheny college of Meadville, Pa., had a walk-away. The home players were never in the running.

Buchtel was good in spots but these were few and far between. The Pennsylvanians persisted in knocking the ball in other localities. With anything like decent support for Orrin, Buchtel's pitcher, the score of the visitors would have been much less.

Brownell on first, Eaves in center, and Price at short played the game like veterans, especially Brownell, who will graduate this year, having taken a 20 years course in base ballism. The wretched work of other men on the local college team made matters so uneven that the game was a painful one to look upon. Buchtel needs practice. There is no team work. Everybody plays for himself paying no attention to the general welfare of the whole aggregation.

The visitors, a gentlemanly set of players, won the game because they fiddled better, hit oftener and harder and ran bases as though they wanted to score. The work of the infield was excellent. Three double plays were scored and once it seemed to the audience at least, that they should have been credited with a
